Frequently Asked Questions:

Q. When may I request a win/loss statement?

A. You may request a win/loss statement for the previous year starting in January. (For example, you may request a win/loss statement for 2018 starting on January 1, 2019.)

Q. How long does it take after I request my win/loss statement for my request to be processed?

A. It could take up to 15 business days to process your request.

Q. What information does the win/loss statement contain?

A. The win/loss statement, or gaming history statement, is an accumulation of slot and table play while using your player's card for the preceding year. This accumulation includes wins and/or losses while using your player's card.

Q. May I get a total of just my winnings or just my losses?

A. Because the totals are an accumulation of play while using your player's card, the totals cannot be separated into just winnings or just losses.

Q. May I get a statement that shows coin-in and coin-out?

A. It is a RCCL policy that this information will not be included on your statement. The IRS recommends that you keep a diary for this purpose.

Q. May I get a statement that only shows my last visit?

A. No, RCCL only prepares a yearly statement upon request in the following year.

Q. What is the difference between a Gaming History (win/loss) Statement, a W2G, and a 1099?

A. A Gaming History Statement gives information that may be used when filing taxes; a W2G form is for the reportable tax amount on gaming winnings and federal income tax withheld on those winnings and is filed with the IRS; and a 1099 form is used to report promotional gifts and/or winnings to the IRS.

Q. Are all Slot jackpots reported to the IRS?

A. A Slot jackpot is only reported to the IRS if it is over $1,199.99.

Q. What if the W2G information does not match your records?

A. Please email RCCL at casinocredit@rccl.com

Q. Is the W2G total in my win/loss total?

A. Yes. Because this is an accumulation, the number is already included.

Q. May I get a copy of my W2G?

A. Yes, email RCCL at casinocredit@rccl.com with the completed online W2G request form.

Q. Where may I find additional information on W2G tax reporting?

A. www.irs.gov
